Voisin announced runner up Law Firm of the Year 2017 | 1

Following Wednesday evening's awards ceremony, I am delighted to announce that Voisin came runner up in the 'Law Firm of the Year – Jersey' in the 2017 Citywealth International Financial Centre (IFC) Awards. Ogier won the category and other candidates included Appleby, Bedell Cristin, Dickinson Gleeson, Ogier and Walkers.

Hosted by Austin Healey, the awards ceremony took place in the Thomas Lord Suite at Lord's Cricket Ground and brought together over 200 top wealth advisers and private client experts. The awards are now in their sixth year and highlight the excellence of advisers and managers in the private wealth sector in the major international financial centres.

A panel of highly respected practitioners from all sectors in the wealth industry were responsible for deciding the winner in each category. In addition, votes cast online by the public were contributed towards the overall result.

Jeffrey Giovannoni, Voisin, says:

'The IFC awards have significant influence within the industry and we are delighted to be runner up in the Jersey Law Firm of the Year award. Voisin is one of Jersey's longest established law firms and it is a testament to the knowledge, skill and dedication of our experienced employees, as well as reinforcing our position as one of Jersey's leading law firms. I am very proud of our team's hard work and their continued commitment to offer the highest quality of service to our clients.'
