

Are you worried about your Will? | 1

VOISIN LAW

During time of anxiety it may help you to know that at Voisin Law we can support you to ensure that the future of your loved ones is secure.

We can facilitate this in a safe and efficient way by taking your instructions via video conference or telephone call and coming to your home to execute your Will whilst complying with the government requirements for social distancing.

For further information about making your Will please contact a member of the Estate Planning & Capacity team.
